

GRANJA SARDÓN

Granja Sardón is a private property of hunting of 1.878 a., defined by rolling sage hills and with Duero River around. The famous vineyard area and the rustic farm in the property, make delicious wines and cheese. The ranch is at 124 mi. from Madrid and we have a very important airport at 25 mi.

We hunt mallards, , red-legged partridges, phaesants and rock doves. Birds try to refuge in hills and river, so they fly high and quickly, offering to the hunters a lot of fanny shots.

Hunting day begins with a breakfast and the raffle of the places. After that, we start the hunting day till a little brake to eat something.

When we finish, we will take the lunch that consist in cheese and lamb from our farm and wine of our own cellar.
